NOTHING IS MORE CONSTANT THAN CHANGE

A NEW BEGINNING

As the organ played and faculty marched in, a number of changes became evident. These variations were noted in faculty, speakers, and future plans. Together these changes made Convocation 1980-81.

The opening prayer was lead by Dr. Vance Davis, Chaplain of High Point College. Dr. David Cole, acting President of High Point College, officially began the school year with his speech. His oration incorporated a welcome to new and returning students as well as an introduction of the speakers. The keynote speech was given by Dr. Tom Haggai,

an alumnus of High Point College. He spoke on the potential of every student. He stated that High Point College had great latency. To prove the truth in that statement, Charles E. Hayworth, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of High Point College announced in his speech that he was planning to officially ask the Board for an estimated three million dollars for the proposed library. This sudden change of pace was the perfect ending to convocation 1980-81.

ALL THOSE FRESHMEN!!

The countdown was over. A new chapter had been opened for a number of special young people. As they took their first step on college ground, they immediately became members of the Freshman Class of 1981. This was the start of a new life encompassing a whole new realm of things yet to be experienced. Change, was the key to what lay ahead of them. Learning to cope with this change characterized the week for each new freshman, this period of adjustment was known as Orientation. It introduced the new students to college life in general, the work as well as the fun.

The returning of the upperclassmen was an anxious moment for each freshman. In anticipation of their feelings, the administration had planned a picnic to relieve tensions and acquaint new faces. Good food and high spirits broke the ice as friendships began to form. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors listened to freshman problems and secretly recanted their own. They remembered the uniqueness of being a freshman.

The newcomers were experiencing a change. Upperclassmen would see it as routine, but it would be something new and exciting to all those freshmen.

WHERE WE LIVE . . .

Sights and colors change as one surveys the area surrounding High Point College. Recreation can always be found anytime on campus, whether it be tennis, frisbee or some other engaging sport.

As one looks farther into the horizon, familiar High Point city streets stretch unencompassed toward the glimmering moonlit oceans. But the brilliance of blooming flowers enhanced by the beauty of stately buildings on sleepy college grounds bring us back to where we live.

ALL IN A DAY . . .

Seconds tick off into minutes, minutes into hours, and hours into days. The succession remains the same. To fill each day, time for classes, studies, relaxation, recreation, a time for others, and time for oneself must all be allotted. This rapid progression of sequences allows us only to take one event at a time. However, once completed, one realizes it happened all in a day.

Acting President Cole contemplates duties ahead.

The academic year, 1980-81 has been one of change for the community that is High Point College. For the first time in twenty-one years the College has not been under the leadership of Dr. Wendell M. Patton, who resigned in mid-summer of 1980. The legacy of Dr. Patton includes imaginative, innovative, and successful programs both in the academic area and those generating growth in the physical plant.

As the College enters the decade of the '80's it finds a change in its student population, a population which is far more serious on its search for achievement. The lack of purpose, the "I'm for me" posture of the student of the 60's, and the "ho-hum, what's next in the amusement line" concept of the early and mid '70's are gone and all of us benefit from this loss. Goals and achievement are once again acceptable. Our Faculty and Administration welcome the challenge and the change that the 1980-81 student presents.

Let us look forward together to growth of purpose, growth of ideal, growth of intellect, but most of all let us together enter into a period of spiritual growth; because in the study of the Word the High Point College community will be given the true meaning of life. God bless you.

*David W. Cole
Acting President*

THE CONSISTENCY CONTINUES . . .

Change is gradual and regular. As the tides flow in and out, day darkens into night, blazing flora fade into seedy pulps and warm summer breezes blow into brisk autumn winds, transformations are occurring. Nothing can stop time, its consistency continues.

WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM

MEN'S TENNIS: The men's tennis team at High Point College goes into the 1981 season with an almost entirely new cast of performers. The top three players for the past four years, including All-American Willem de Groot and All-Conference performers Chris Hohnhold and Phil Parrish, have graduated, leaving a large gap to be filled.

Second-year Coach Charlie Futrell has two lettermen returning in Jim Holleran and Griff Thompson. The sophomores teamed to reach the conference finals in doubles a year ago as well as being ranked among the top four doubles teams in District 26. Holleran also won the number five singles fight in the conference.

High Point College has been one of the dominant tennis teams in North Carolina over the past decade. This year's group, when they gain experience, hope to join the elite winners of bygone years.

WOMEN'S TENNIS: With four straight conference titles under their belts the women's tennis team seems all set for a run at a fifth. Five All-Conference members of a year ago return along with three superb freshman players.

Seniors Vicky Williams, Kathy Neblett and Kinta Otterman played the top three positions for the past two years and have helped lead the Panthers to their string of championships. They have also won two state championships in the past three years as well as earning three trips to the regional tournament.

High Point will have the option for the first time of trying to qualify for the AIAW State and Regional Tournaments or going with the NAIA's new championship program for women. Either way the Lady Panthers seem set for a very successful year.

GOLF TEAM

Track-Golf

TRACK TEAM: The High Point College track team, coming off a second place finish in the Carolinas Conference meet a year ago, seems set to try to better that finish and challenge Pembroke State for the title.

Bob Davidson, in his 18th year at High Point as track coach, comments, "We have some quality runners and field men. A lot will depend on how hard the people want to work to improve themselves. We lost some good people and they will be hard to replace."

GOLF TEAM: The golf program at High Point College has seen a steady rise since being taken over by Coach Woody Gibson in 1975. The Panthers, who had finished last in the conference for several years, have moved into the upper ranks of conference contenders and are set this year to make a real threat at winning the conference title.

The Panthers play tournaments in the fall and spring in addition to several matches among conference teams. High Point will again play its home matches at Oak Hollow Golf Course.

Cheerleaders

The players and the crowd get "Fired Up" as the High Point College cheerleading squad enthusiastically leads the crowd in chants and cheers. This enthusiasm is not determined by one person, but is the total output of the 16 member squad.

The High Point College cheerleading squad has grown both in number and talent over the past few years. The dedication and talent of the squad's members has made it a cheerleading squad for High Point College to speak of with pride. One interesting aspect has been the addition of the male cheerleaders. This has increased the number and difficulty of stunts and as a result produces more spirit among the crowd and the squad itself.

The 1980-1981 cheerleading squad appreciates the support given by the High Point College Panther fans.

Intramurals A Game Of Unity

Resolute faces etched with wrinkles of concentration can be found at each intramural event. Poised bodies await in eager anticipation each movement on various playing fields.

Whether the sport be volleyball, track, softball, bowling, soccer, tennis, or football, two similarities can be discovered amidst these sports. These semblances are determination and the unique mixture of individuals, skills, and personalities which compose these teams. The unprecedented amount of fortitude exhibited in each activity characterizes every team.

Each team is defined by its strong determination to display its maximum effort, despite inadequacies in the sport. The lack of proficiency does not hinder their willingness to give their all. The coordination between body and mind is strengthened by this energy. Intramurals allow those interested in having fun to participate regardless of their degree of skill. These activities offer enjoyment, exercise, and a convenient break from studying to its participants.

The participants are a combination of individuals, skills, and personalities. Team members are distinctive in their own right. Each seeking something new and different which only intramurals can provide. Varying degrees of talent merge to create a team. Through such a united effort, interpersonal relationships develop. These associations are a unique combination of diverse personalities. Temperament and good sportsmanship make each game a success, regardless of who loses or wins.

Thus, through determination, skills, and individual personalities, intramurals provide what each participant needs. One does not have to be the best, but just willing to give their all. As in anything else, it is not the amount of participation or quality, but it is the determination behind the effort put forth. They may not be the best, but that does not stop them from trying.

1981 to most this year will mean very little. However, to a small group of people 1981 is the fulfillment of a dream. Goals that were set many years ago are now within reach. Nearly 200 seniors are receiving their degrees this year. Four years ago graduation was but a dream to a new freshman class. Now it all seems to have passed too fast. Good times, bad times, and close friends will all be but forgotten as the class of '81 prepares to take its place in society.

Problems seem to be the strength of our yearbook. As difficulties arose, we bonded together to overcome them, to produce a yearbook of substance. Our efforts have served us well. Our deepest gratitude goes to all those who have helped in anyway.

Our college has been exposed to several aspects of change since its last academic year. We have incorporated these changes in this book, and have shown that with support and a working effort the yearbook itself can change. A book, which just last year was almost a victim of apathy, has become a book beginning to regain its self respect. Only through continued support, and willingness to work, through rough times as well as smooth, will the High Point College Zenith be able to ascend to heights of excellency.

Once again, thanks to all staff members. Our sincere gratitude and thanks go to Mr. Petrea, Mrs. Ingram, and Lynn Preston for their contributions.

May God Bless You All.

*Sincerely,
Yvonne Hurley Editor-in-Chief
Art Prillaman Associate Editor*

DR. PATTON SPEAKS

Dr. Wendell M. Patton, to whom the 1980-81 Zenith is dedicated to in thanks for his work at our beloved college.

To My Friends-The Class of 1981

The great adventure of your life is now ready to begin! As you close out one chapter and begin this new one, I wish for you every opportunity, joy, and happiness of which you now dream.

Today-if you are lucky-you may know what you are-but not what you may be. By your decisions, your values, your choices between right and wrong you will determine day by day what you will become. Give this serious thought because most of us think of only tomorrow-not today.

Pearl McGuinness wrote:

*"I have no yesterdays
Time took them away
Tomorrow may not be
But I have today!"*

There is to tomorrow-only today! The decisions you make, this hour, this day will be determining factors in what you are going to be tomorrow.

Lofty ambitions, high ideals will never be reached unless you start today-this minute-making your decisions in terms of your ideals and ambitions. The hours-days-months-and the years-all creep by unnoticed. Each small event, small decision, and small thought pile on top of each other as building blocks and suddenly you are brought face to face with the fact you are what you are, never knowing how you arrived there.

My wish for you is that you begin the new chapter of your life by starting this minute-this day-to become what you know you can be.

May you always stay close to God and May He continue to love, guide and comfort you on your journey. Wendell M. Patton
